

Italian Renaissance Style

Project ID 24077

Style Gallery

Spanish Eclectic Style

Based on pre-colonial Spanish missions, these homes are defined by low-pitched roofs usually of red tiles, stucco siding, and arches above front doors and porch entries.

Italian Renaissance Style

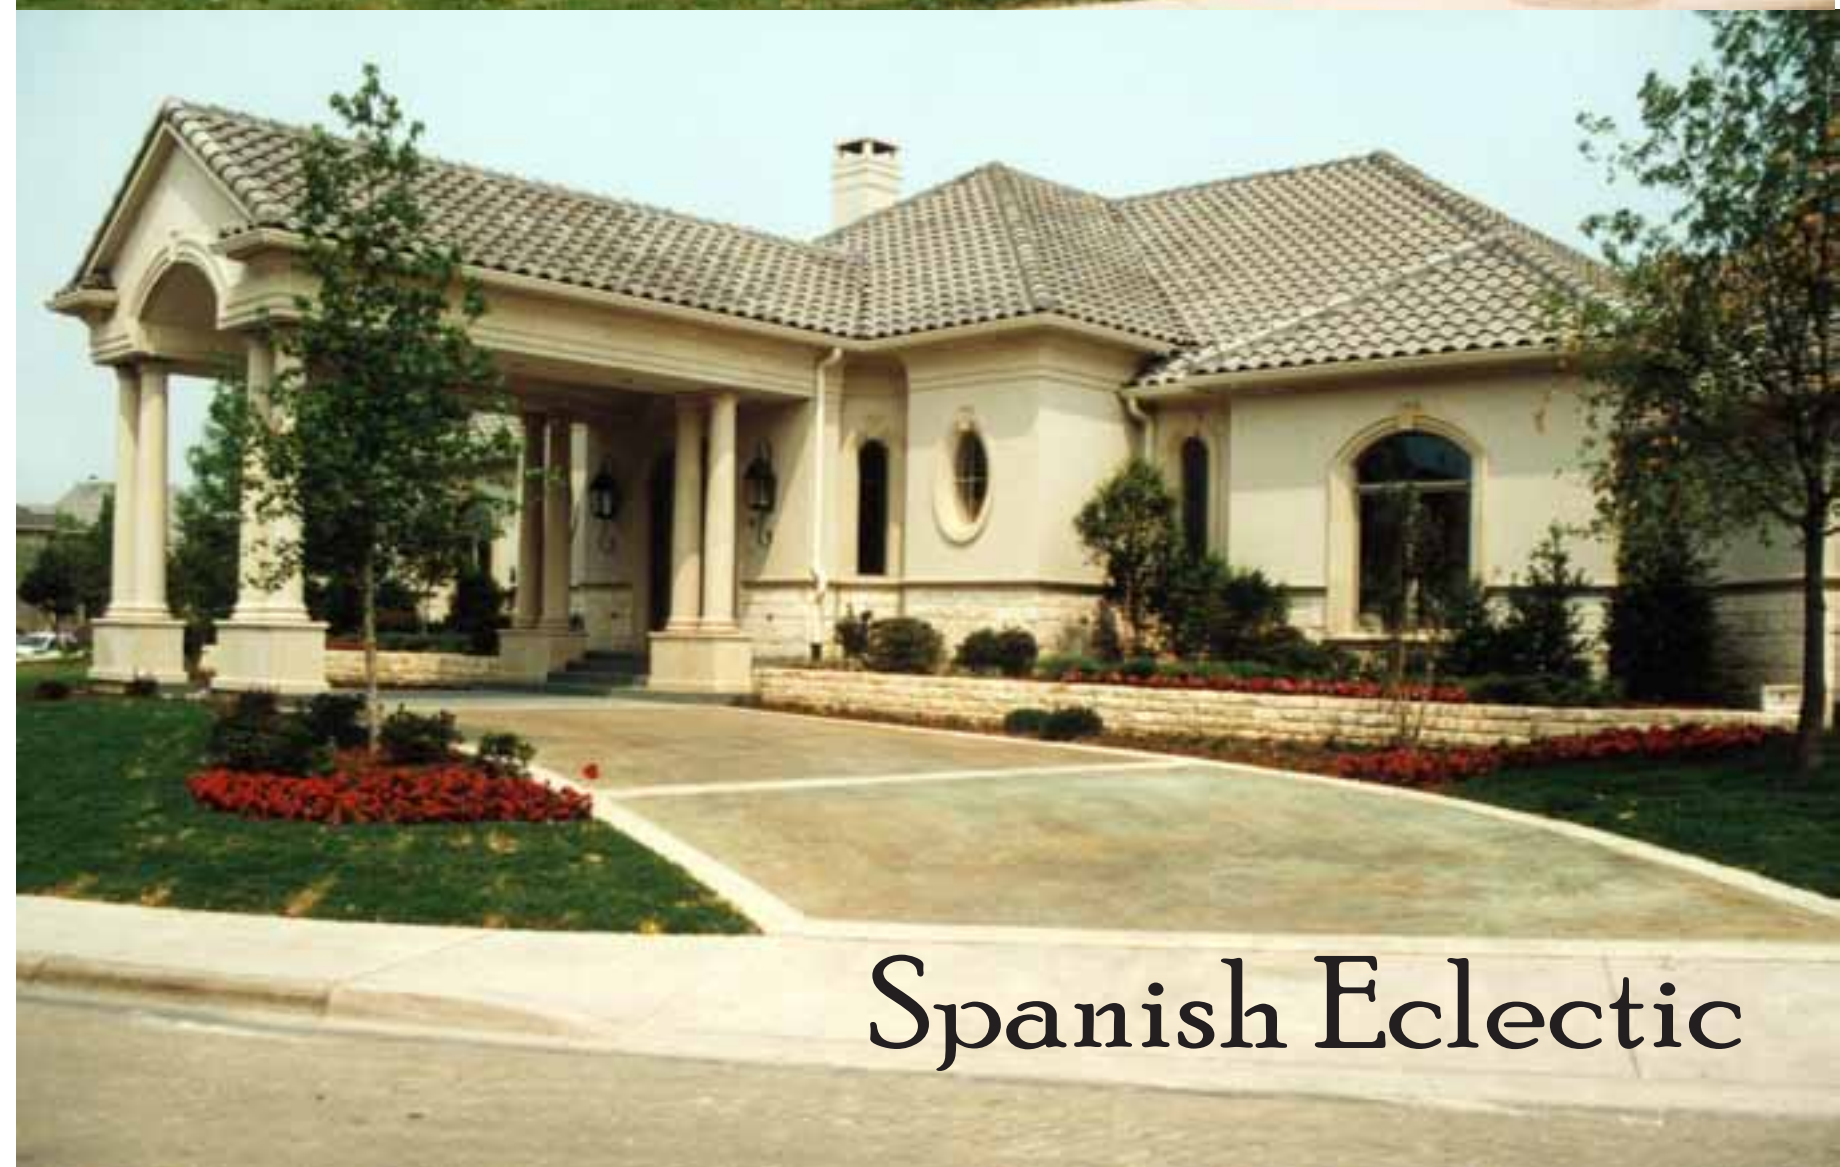

Italian Renaissance Style

Project ID 5818

Style Gallery

Spanish Eclectic

Italian Renaissance Style

These style homes will often have many of the following features

- Cube-shaped
- Balanced, symmetrical façade
- Smooth stone walls, made from a smooth stucco finish
- Roof topped with balustrade
- Horizontal stone banding between floors
- Ornately carved stone window trim varying in design at each story
- Smaller square windows on top floor
- Quoins (large stone blocks at the corners)

Project ID 23146

Style Gallery